QUESTION ONE ✓

a) What are the three basic functions of an accounting information system? [6 Marks]

b) You are the chief information officer for LastHope (Pvt) Limited and the company has decided to implement an ERP system. The Managing Director (MD) has met with a consulting ERP firm based on a recommendation from a personal friend at his club. At the interview, the president of the consulting firm introduced the chief consultant, who was charming, personable, and seemed very knowledgeable. The MD's first instinct was to sign a contract with the consultant, but he decided to hold off until he had received your input.
